Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Renfield: Slave of Dracula

This is a reimagining of the Dracula story as told through the eyes of Renfield, the mental hospital inmate who is affected by the vampire and does his bidding. It is very true to the original story, even including parts of Bram Stoker's text, but seems more accessible to the modern reader, possibly because Barbara Hambly doesn't deal in black and white but in myriad shades of grey for her characters.
